Chapter Four: Monster Overload and the Vertical Limit
Final warning!
I'm telling you for the last time!
There are no demons in the third dimension! No monsters!
If you act crazy again and break something or do anything ridiculous, I'll tear your guts out!
You can't pull that crap in our world!
Got it?!
！？

Yes.
.....
Why are you so trouble-some?
You said you won't do it again,
but I'm still worried!
.....
That was just the first ride and you're already bashing stuff.
But I don't wanna go back already...
~YAWN
.....
Hm...
First, I have to get him used to the third dimension so he at least won't cause trouble.
I've got to take him somewhere he can learn the ropes quickly.
But where could I find a place like that?
.....

Let's go see.
We'll look suspicious just standing around.
I hope there were no cameras back there...
But where is some place he could get a crash course in the 3D world?
Oh?
CITY OF THE DEAD
Whoa!
A haunted house!
I just thought of something fun.
Although it might be a little...

It's ,
so dark in here...
Hey
We're already in.
Remember what I just told you,okay? Everything here is fake!
They were all built to scare people!
Hope there's nothing too freaky
At least he's with me.
It'll be scary, but not dangerous.
Just a little stimulating... ...
It's so gloomy.
Yeah
Something might jump out at us!
...So you mean, we paid money just to come in here and be scared?
This is what 3D people do for fun?
That's not all there is to it...
You have to really feel the excitement...
But no matter what, don't overreact, they're just...
OOOOH ~

I am a ghost...
Hi!
CRAP!
I am a ghost...
Look!
See?
His eyes are just two red lights.
He just repeats the same moves over and over.
I BZZ
SHOO Terrifying! am a ghost
CREAK
Nothing to be afraid of, right?
It's so scary... we better get going!
Why would this scare anybody?
Okay.
I'll give you a chance to practice.
Go on ahead!
This doesn't seem too bad...

Boo !
Brains !
Hello ...
Eeeee...
That scared the crap out of me!
Aghhh !!
SAVE ME !
Run!
Run!

Let's get out of here!
HEHEHE
HEHEHE HEHEHE
This place sucks!
Just ignore them!
They're all man-made!
SCREECH
SCREECH AH!
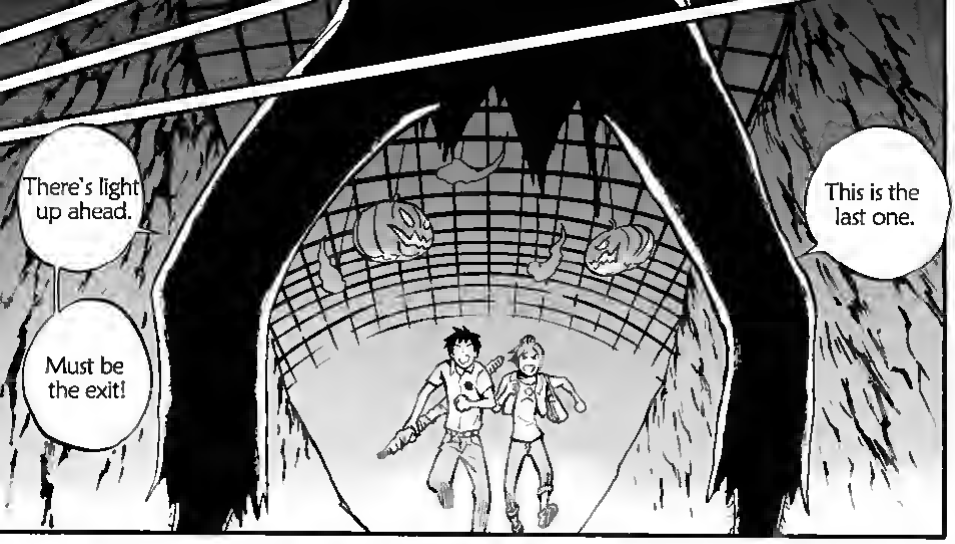
bat?
Fake! Fake!
SWOOP
SWOOP
SWOOP
Don't be scared!
Hey, these bats are a lot like Di-
Don't scare me you jerk!
SCREECH
SCREECH
Stop talking! They're all fake!



There's light up ahead.
Must be the exit!
This is the last one.

It doesn't move?
Is it broken?
Come on, let's go!

Nyah-nyah,
Hssss

Brains!
Flesh!
SHIT!
Oh...
Hello.

Holy crap!
Come on!
Save me!
Shut up!
It looks like he's only chasing you
FLESH!
Am I done for...?
When did these things become so advanced...?
Escape...
Sweet...
This electric ghoul is more advanced than the other ones. He can even run.
Oh crap! He's ripping his own head off!
This is the worst!
I'm a person...
When the hell did this stuff get so fancy?
I almost had a heart attack...

Geez,
why'd you come to a haunted house if you're so scared?
How come nobody told me...
...there'd be people in costume...
It's not scary at all. Why are you reacting like this...? ...
Are you okay? You're so pale...

So now, you understand, right?
Ghosts and demons or whatever are nothingto be afraid of. The only monsters in the 3D world are man-made ones.
I didn't even think they were scary without you telling me they were fake.
But you seem pretty freaked...
Alright enough!

You're afraid of orcs. Well I'm afraid of the dark Everybody's afraid of something.
As a warrior, there's nothing I'm afraid of. It's just that monsters cause damage and destruction, so naturally I'm on guard around them.
You look exhausted. Why don't we go back?
No way!
I don't get out enough,
and the tickets were expensive!

Speaking of, where do you get all your money from?
Is it from selling your cute "manga"
Watch your mouth!
Pretty much. I can only put food on the table if people buy my stuff.
So how's business?
I'll definitely make it!
Even if I have to survive on ramen noodles for a few more years, it will all be worth it when I'm famous!
Rah!
Alright... calm down.
If your manga doesn't sell well, you could go paint some rich people-Idiot!
Come on!
Let's go on another ride.
La, la, la.
La-dee-da.
